

Please approve Indiana's no-call law. Although telemarketers may have some limited commercial free speech, their targets (you and me) have a right of privacy. I resent being interrupted by a unsolicited telemarketer to pitch me on something I do not want.